

DJ and Music Production Course Spanish or English programme in Ibiza

The Spanish or English Course

Spanish or English intensive courses of 4 daily classes from Monday to Friday in our modern language school officially accredited by Instituto Cervantes.

Students of different nationalities and ages will mix in small groups with a maximum of 9 students with the objective to speak as much either Spanish or English as possible. Course levels are from A1 to C2 and all teachers are certified and experienced.

The DJ and Electronic Music Production Course

This programme is designed specifically for students who want to learn to use Ableton Live + Traktor for electronic music production and DJing.

The teachers are Ableton Live certified, multilingual and resident DJs in important clubs like, for example, world famous Pacha Ibiza.

Students can choose between a 1-2 weeks course on a beginner level or a 1 weeks course on an advanced level.

Accommodation

Students can choose between our shared apartments with other students of the language school from different countries and the great variety of hotels on the island.

The Location

This unique course package takes place in Ibiza: UNESCO world heritage, the world's capital of electronic music and mediterranean beach paradise. There is only one!
